

Congo Research Network PhD Days

Brussels, May 28th and 29th 2019

Venue: Vrije Universiteit Brussel

(Campus de la Plaine, Building C, 5th floor, room 5C406)

Particularly in the past decade, an increasing number of scholars in the Social Sciences and Humanities (SSH) has become interested in the DRC, thus significantly expanding the field of Congo studies.

This two-day PhD meeting wants to identify and make visible doctoral research in progress, to connect younger colleagues and to break down disciplinary or institutional boundaries.

Keynote speaker:

Justin Bisanswa

(ULaval/Université de Nantes)

“The Congolese novel as chronicle of contemporary history”

Attending the PhD Days is free, but please register before 25th May by sending an email at: congoresearchnetwork@gmail.com

The organising committee: Tom De Herdt (UAntwerp)
Benoît Henriët (VUB)
Katrien Pype (KULeuven)
Nathalie Tousignant (USL-B)
Caroline Michellier (AfricaMuseum)

KU LEUVEN

IOB
Institute of Development Policy
University of Antwerp

AFRICA museum

VUB
VRIJE
UNIVERSITEIT
BRUSSEL

U
UNIVERSITÉ
SAINT-LOUIS
BRUXELLES

UCLouvain
SAINT-LOUIS BRUXELLES

Flanders
State of the Art

RICHTING MORGEN
OF POLITICS & SOCIETY

YouReCa